

Working with mixed ages – handout for team

Many churches have Sunday groups with mixed ages which can mean it feels difficult to know how to help everyone enjoy the session and learn from it. This video will give you some ideas for how to work with mixed ages well.

Take a step back

- What are the important things for you and your church?
- Does what you do now work?
- How is the team feeling?

See Sundays differently

- Not a classroom but a family
- What that approach might look like
- Three reasons why 'family' is a powerful approach

Work out your programme

- Choose a structure
- Use conversation starters
- Know how you want kids to connect with God

If you would like more ideas and information about working with mixed ages, do ask your leader for a copy of the 'Overview for leaders' sheet for this session.
